Greenwich

Greenwich is one of the three royal boroughs in London, situated on the southern banks of the river Thames.

Home to a UNESCO World Heritage site, a royal park, a planetarium, one of the world's most popular music venues and more, Greenwich is a truly unique and buzzing place to host business events.

In the wider context of London

Getting here:

London City Airport is one of six international airports in London and is located right at the centre of the capital.

The airport's location is a vital aspect for business travellers, with ExCeL London, Canary Wharf and Greenwich all being in close reach. The departure lounge is also designed for the business traveller, with free wifi, workstations, charging-points and more.

Currently undergoing a £500 million development, London City Airport will see a completely new experience delivered to travellers by 2022.
